

Title: Appraiser

Location: REMOTE: Flexible work from home

Status: PT or FT

Company: BC Appraisal Experts

Please send all resumes to janene@bcappraisalexperts.ca

Closing date: September 18, 2020

Company Description

We are a fast-growing company; help be a part of our exciting expansion and build something great. Our team at BC Appraisal Experts helps BC residents appeal their assessments, we focus on residential housing in BC.

Joining our team will allow you to work remotely and create your own schedule. You will have the opportunity to help shape and develop how our company grows. We are looking for someone with multi-faceted skills, someone who can help create processes and is tech savvy.

Role

- Undertake the valuation of various types of real estate properties
- Build and review valuation models, analysis and appraiser reports
- Gather and analyze data relating to the properties being appraised
- Gather additional information relevant to the valuation
- Think creatively to find solutions to unusual and new valuation circumstances
- Conduct research and collect data with respect to comparable housing transactions and general market knowledge

Abilities

- AIC Candidate
- 2+ years of relevant work or educational experience in residential appraisal
- Ability and experience to assist in real property valuation opinions
- Attention to details with excellent analytical to provide market analysis
- Strong ability to solve complex technical problems.
- Proficiency working with Word, Excel and PowerPoint.
- ability to work independently with minimal supervision.
- Highly motivated, committed, and flexible to cope with changing priorities and strict deadlines.